Dear "Jellybean"

This morning we heard you read the letter from Uncle Frank and we're glad Uncle Frank and Teddy had a good trip down the highway. Bet they do miss Shamrock Products, do you know pretty soon my Daddy will have to go out and stay overnight on a Bivawac and we're going to give him some Shamrock Pecan Buns to take with him. We figure maybe that will make him happier about sleeping out of doors all night, if anything can.

Mommy and I like the "Little Orley" stories and especially the "Cabbage Worm". Did Uncle Frank take "The Pussy Cat Parade" with him?? If he didn't can we hear that soon?

Love,

J A M
