

Clear
Cloudy
Rain
Snow

Sunday, FEBRUARY 15

46th Day—319 days to come

Aug. 16th —

Beaver—a small trading post, here we stopped to take on wood & deliver supplies. A very charming young lady & her mother came on the boat, the young girl was the school teacher here mother. Her pet-rop were with her, the parting between she & her dogs was very pathetic. Mrs Boyle & Miss Boyle the girl had been the school teacher, but was

Clear
Cloudy
Rain
Snow

Monday, FEBRUARY 16

47th Day—318 days to come

leaving. The Indians were all down to the boat to say good by. These women are very charming

Pungatong:—Forty miles below Beaver, this was named by Sergeant Yanert: who located it at this point in 1910. He and his brother live here, they make many things out of wood & horn at the landing stands the devil with a fork waving a handkerchief & a hideous head in a box