Sincere Wishes

For Someone Who is Ill

To tell you I'm sorry

to learn you are ill

Is not very helpful,

I know;

Bonnie and

CAROL Williams

I'd like to do something to lessen the pain,
Or something that truly would show
How much I am hoping you soon will be well!

Please feel that you won't be sick long;
I'm sure God intended that someone like you Should always be happy and strong!

Dear Jellybean,

We hope this finds you well again. We sure miss your happy voice every morning. So please come back + be on our favorite radio program real soon.

Now we have a cow named Bell + she has a 6 week old calf all white, named Snow ball - she is so cute.

We like your Dad too but hurry back to us.

Love,

The Williams Family.
